

DAVID DRUMM, LUT

Candidate for Board of Trustees

David Drumm is a Licensed Unity Teacher (LUT) at Unity of Dallas where he has served for 28 years in this capacity. His leadership experience in Unity also includes serving on the board of directors for Unity of Dallas several times.

David considers adult education design and instruction as one of his strongest areas of expertise. He teaches SEE classes and has served as youth education teacher. In addition, he teaches at the Dallas Philosophers Forum and the Dallas Science and Religion Group, and in other venues. His active community involvement spans thirty years.

David has been a partner in the law firm of Carrington, Coleman, Sloman, and Blumenthal, L.L.P. since 1987, and a member of the firm's executive committee since 2011. He has been with the firm since his graduation from law school in 1980, and specializes in transactional law, working primarily on commercial real estate and upstream oil and gas transactions.

His vision for Unity is that of continuing and strengthening its role as a facilitator and thought leader in the New Thought movement, with the goal of transforming lives and inspiring people to make a positive difference in our world.

KEY FACTS:

- LUT for 28 years
- Graduate of the Integral Ministry Practice certification program
- Served on several committees and boards for Unity of Dallas
- Graduated from law school in 1980; and a practicing lawyer for over 40 years
- Actively involved in his community, including 30 years of experience on the boards of non-profits