

REV. ROBERT E. TURNER

Candidate for Board of Trustees

Rev. Robert Turner serves as Minister for Community Engagement at Unity of Savannah. In June 2022, he was ordained as a Unity minister through the Unity Urban Ministerial School (UUMS). Robert earned his BS and MBA degrees from Bradley University and is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA).

Robert has committed nearly 45 years to applying Unity principles in his life; through his family, friends, spiritual community, his investment career, his studies at UUMS, and his ministry. In 1990, he founded and successfully managed Turner Investments. This company has been recognized as one of the premier growth equity managers in the world. After merging his company with a technology software company in 2016, Robert has focused his attention on private growth companies and real estate.

Robert and his wife Carolyn have supported entrepreneurial and innovation activities for nearly two decades. They established the Turner Center for Entrepreneurship in Peoria, IL. The Center has created or maintained over 30,000 jobs in the Midwest. Robert and Carolyn also established Turner School of Entrepreneurship and Innovation at Bradley University, the first independent school of entrepreneurship in the country. Robert serves on the boards/advisory councils of several for-profit and charitable organizations.

For Unity Worldwide Ministries, Robert envisions an organization that continues to thrive offering practical, positive, and progressive approaches to Spirituality. He sees challenged ministries improving, successful ministries prospering and new ministries emerging.
