

Getting Started Checklist

Getting Started Checklist for Head Sponsors/Uniteen Leaders/Teen Ministry Directors to Start a New Group

Action	Directions
1. Explore facets of teen ministry to see if it is right for you.
Go into prayer and hold the space for the vision of teen ministry.	Let Spirit's guidance direct the process.
Examine current beliefs.	What are my beliefs about teens? What are the ministry's cultural beliefs about teens? What are society's beliefs about teens? What do I believe about the leader or sponsor's role? What are my beliefs about Unity principles?
Meet with the Youth & Family Ministry Director (YFMD) and minister to share your current beliefs, objectives, goals and dreams for teen ministry as well as learning the policies and expectations of the ministry. Set up regular monthly or quarterly meetings to report updates.	What ministry requirements must be met for adults wishing to work with the youth? Whom will the program serve? Is there enough support to start a group? What is the current mission and vision for the program? What training is available for leaders and sponsors? What curriculum is used? What is the working relationship with the Youth and Family Ministry Director? What role do teens play in leadership? What Sacred Safety procedures are in place? What kind of budget/resources does the teen ministry have? What is the process for creating a budget? What strategies do we have to recruit new teen leaders and sponsors? What are the time requirements for teen ministry? How will we promote the group?
2. Create the foundation for support
Review each section of the Teen Ministry Manual	www.unityworldwideministries.org/our-products/youth-family-education
Take the YFM Assessment and discuss results along with any necessary follow up actions with the YFMD.	www.unityworldwideministries.org/youth-and-family-ministry-assessment

Contact your regional education consultant to find out about regional support.	www.unityworldwideministries.org/regional-education-consultants-overview
In collaboration with the YFMD, prepare a budget including personal expenses.	See Section Eight: Finances . Discuss with YFMD ways expenses can be met.
Sign up for The Path e-newsletter and Unity Leaders Journal .	www.unity.org/enews www.unityleaders.org
Visit the UWM Website and Facebook pages.	www.UnityWorldwideMinistries.org www.facebook.com/YouthofUnity www.unity.org/iyouevent www.facebook.com/UnityWorldwideMinistries
Purchase teen curriculum based on the Living Curriculum	www.unityworldwideministries.org/curriculum
Promote the program and continue holding the space for the teen program to be established.	In collaboration with the YFMD, announce the forming of the group from platform, bulletin, website, Facebook page, newsletter, etc.
3. Begin meeting
Begin meeting weekly with your teens—with adult sponsors or leaders	In order to protect insurance liability, UWM highly recommends having background checks for all adults working with youth and using the “two adult” rule. www.unityworldwideministries.org/sacred-safety-background-checks-and-resources
With the teens, create a mission/vision statement if there is not already one in place, or update current statement if needed.	See Section Ten: Creating a Vision and Mission Statement .
After teen group has been established, explore possible social events, service projects, regional events, IYOU event, youth training.	See Section Seven: Events .
4. On going Training
Attend regional training opportunities	Contact your regional education consultant or consult your region’s website for details
Attend Unity Worldwide Ministries’ training Unity National Youth Ministry Training	www.unityworldwideministries.org/unity-national-youth-ministry-training
Above all, have fun!

Joining an Existing Teen Group to Assist?

Getting Started Checklist for Assisting Adult Sponsors and Leaders

Action	Directions
1. Explore facets of teen ministry to see if it is right for you.
Go into prayer and hold the space for the vision of teen ministry.	Let Spirit's guidance direct the process. Trust!
Examine current beliefs.	What are my beliefs about teens? What are the ministry's cultural beliefs about teens? What are society's beliefs about teens? What do I believe about the leader or sponsor's role? What are my beliefs about Unity principles?
Meet with the Teen Ministry Director (TMD) or Head Sponsor (HS) to share your current beliefs, objectives, goals and dreams for teen ministry as well as learning the policies and expectations of the ministry.	What ministry requirements must be met for adults wishing to work with the youth? Whom does the program serve? What is the current mission and vision for the program? What training is available? What role do teens play in leadership? What Sacred Safety procedures are in place? What kind of budget/resources does the teen ministry have? What are the time requirements for teen ministry?
Following Sacred Safety procedures, attend a weekly teen group to see if it is a fit.	In order to protect insurance liability, UWM highly recommends having background checks for all adults working with youth and using the "two adult" rule. www.unityworldwideministries.org/sacred-safety-background-checks-and-resources
Have a follow up meeting with the YFMD or HS to share your experience.
2. If you and the TMD or HS decide it is a good fit:
Review each section of the Teen Ministry Manual .	www.unityworldwideministries.org/our-products/youth-family-education
Sign up for The Path e-newsletter.	www.unity.org/enews

Visit the UWM website and Facebook pages.	www.UnityWorldwideMinistries.org www.facebook.com/YouthofUnity www.unity.org/iyouevent www.facebook.com/UnityWorldwideMinistries
Following Sacred Safety procedures, begin attending the meetings with your teens, adult sponsors or leaders.	In order to protect insurance liability, UWM highly recommends having background checks for all adults working with youth and using the “two adult” rule. www.unityworldwideministries.org/sacred-safety-background-checks-and-resources
After regular attendance has been established, explore possible social events, service projects, regional events, IYOU event, youth training.	See Section Seven: Events .
3. On-Going Training
Regularly attend YFM or Teen Ministry meetings and/or training opportunities at your center
Attend regional training opportunities.	Contact your regional education consultant or consult your region’s website for details.
Attend Unity Worldwide Ministries’ training, Unity National Youth Ministry Training .	www.unityworldwideministries.org/unity-national-youth-ministry-training
Have fun!	